PREFACE
2021-2022 Supplementary Pamphlet

Kentucky Practice, Volume 18, Kentucky Workers’ Compensation with Forms serves as a guide to workers’ compensation law and practice in Kentucky from hearing through appeals.

The annual update is intended to provide the current information on the state of the law of Workers’ Compensation in Kentucky. The material in this pocket part is current through the date noted below. Highlights in this 2021-2022 supplementary pamphlet include:

- The Kentucky Supreme Court confirmed that changes in the interest rates due on compensation were not retroactive. Martin v. Warrior Coal LLC, 617 S.W.3d 391 (2021).

- The Kentucky Court of Appeals discussed the issue of employer/insurer subrogation claims after an action against a third party. Louisville/Jefferson County Metro Government v. Ackerson, 618 S.W.3d 485, 496-498 (Ky. App. 2021).

- The Kentucky Supreme Court issued a new opinion that notes that a temporary service provider is an employer for purposes of workers’ compensation. As such, that provider is not liable for the additional compensation due when the work place company intentional violates safety provisions. Maysey v. Express Services, Inc. 620 S.W.3d 63 (Ky. 2021).

- The Kentucky Supreme Court has issued a new opinion on determining the amount of permanent partial disability when there is a preexisting injury. Viwin Tech Windows & Doors, Inc. v. Ivey, 621 S.W.3d 153, 157-159 (Ky. 2021).

- The Kentucky Supreme Court has issued a new opinion to discuss the issues of notice and statutes of limitations. Ford Motor Company v. Duckworth, 615 S.W.3d 26, 31-32 (Ky. 2021).

- Entire volume reviewed for new developments and updated as appropriate.
