Preface

Practicing attorneys know the importance of having ready access to relevant statutes. In these volumes, we have gathered in one convenient place all the statutes with direct relevance to insurance coverage litigation. These include frequently-cited chapters governing particular policies such as fire insurance (Chapter 65A), auto insurance (Chapter 65B), life insurance (Chapter 61A), accident and health insurance (Chapter 62A), and workers compensation insurance (Chapter 176). These also include insurance statutes less commonly cited, but which are vital when relevant to your particular case. Together, these volumes give you a portable, up-to-date library of Minnesota insurance statutes.
