Mississippi Law of Damages is a complete handbook on damages law for civil practitioners in Mississippi. This handy, yet thorough, reference manual provides concise, orderly discussion of how to plead and prove damages in order to maximize recoveries. In 2019, new material was added and/or existing material updated on the following subjects, among others:

- Standing
- Conflict of laws
- Attorney’s fees
- Shareholder liability
- Alimony
- Employer liability
- Voluntary payments on behalf of an insured
- Implied warranty of habitability
- Adulteration of food
- Project engineer’s liability for injuries on construction project
- Alienation of affections
- Defamation
- Fraud
- Wrongful death