Table of Contents

CHAPTER 1. INDUSTRY OUTLOOK AND TRENDS
§ 1:1 Overview
Appendix 1-B. 2019 State of U.S. Small Law Firms Study

CHAPTER 2. STRATEGIC PLANNING

I. IN GENERAL
§ 2:1 Introduction

II. AN APPROACH TO THE STRATEGIC PROCESS
§ 2:2 Introduction
§ 2:3 What is the firm’s “value position”? Why does value position matter?

III. ACHIEVING VALUE CONVERGENCE
§ 2:5 Introduction
§ 2:6 Expansion tactics
§ 2:7 Migration efforts
§ 2:8 Contraction efforts

IV. KEY PRINCIPLES OF SUCCESSFUL STRATEGY FORMULATION
§ 2:9 Introduction
§ 2:10 Achieve insight and buy-in by involving key players

V. AN APPROACH TO FORMULATING A STRATEGIC PLAN
§ 2:11 Phase one: assessing your firm’s current position
§ 2:12 Phase two: agreeing on the firm’s current position
§ 2:13 Phase three: identifying the strategic direction
§ 2:14 Phase four: implementation
§ 2:15 Performance metrics
§ 2:16 Checklist for formulating and implementing a strategic plan
CHAPTER 3. LAW FIRM LEADERSHIP
§ 3:1 Introduction
§ 3:2 The scholarship on leadership
§ 3:3 Responsibilities of managing partners
§ 3:4 Skills of effective law firm leaders
§ 3:5 —Leaders are made, not born
§ 3:6 —Importance of competencies
§ 3:7 —Research on great law firm leadership
§ 3:8 —Leadership styles
§ 3:9 —External focus
§ 3:10 —Strategic thinking
§ 3:11 —Emotional intelligence
§ 3:12 Delegation
§ 3:13 —Practice groups
§ 3:14 —The executive director
§ 3:15 Compensation
§ 3:16 Evaluating managing partner performance
§ 3:17 Term and succession
§ 3:18 Finding and developing leaders
Appendix 3-A. Effective Leadership for Lawyers

CHAPTER 4. LAW FIRM MARKETING
§ 4:1 Introduction
§ 4:2 The marketing role—What is it?
§ 4:3 Marketing within a firm’s business strategy
§ 4:4 Three key concepts underlying marketing strategy
§ 4:5 Positioning in professional services
§ 4:6 The marketing strategy process
§ 4:7 Making the marketing role effective
§ 4:8 Client service and business relationships
§ 4:9 Measuring service quality
§ 4:10 Marketing motivation and accountability
§ 4:11 Technology as a competitive advantage
§ 4:12 The future of law firm marketing

CHAPTER 5. PARTNERSHIP STRUCTURE AND COMPENSATION
§ 5:1 Generally
§ 5:2 Comparison of equity and income partners
§ 5:3 How criteria for income and equity partner status vary
§ 5:4 Treatment within key operational areas
§ 5:5 Benefits and disadvantages of multi-tier and single-tier structures
Table of Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:6</td>
<td>Movement between partnership tiers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:7</td>
<td>Structural issues in the context of a merger</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:8</td>
<td>A new model of professional development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:9</td>
<td>—Breaking the lockstep mentality</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:10</td>
<td>—Misalignment of lockstep and professional development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:11</td>
<td>—Alignment of professional development models with natural lawyer development</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:12</td>
<td>—Establishment of success-driven professional development and progression models</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:13</td>
<td>—Structuring developmental categories</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:14</td>
<td>—Linking development categories to firm strategy and practice requirements</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:15</td>
<td>—Definition of professional development stages</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:16</td>
<td>—Linking professional development and compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:17</td>
<td>—Integration of lawyer development models and compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:18</td>
<td>—New approaches to partner compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:19</td>
<td>—Leading edge models of partner compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:20</td>
<td>—Management-driven compensation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:21</td>
<td>—A note on bonuses</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:22</td>
<td>—Linking compensation to practice management and teamwork objectives</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:23</td>
<td>—Special situation compensation—Compensation approaches in merger</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:24</td>
<td>—Cradle to grave compensation planning</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:25</td>
<td>—Managing compensation in later professional years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:26</td>
<td>—Transition to retirement—Do firm retirement promises still make sense?</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 5:27</td>
<td>Conclusion</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER 6. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Section</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:1</td>
<td>Introduction</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:2</td>
<td>Summary of key findings</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:3</td>
<td>—Leadership and management</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:4</td>
<td>—Culture, behavior, and communication</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:5</td>
<td>—Common messages</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:6</td>
<td>—Dialogue with employees</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:7</td>
<td>Performance management systems and practices</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:8</td>
<td>—Goal alignment</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:9</td>
<td>—Multi-rater feedback</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:10</td>
<td>—Results and behaviors</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:11</td>
<td>—External criteria</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>§ 6:12</td>
<td>—Performance review training</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
§ 6:13 —Performance planning
§ 6:14 —Forced distribution
§ 6:15 —Feedback and coaching
§ 6:16 —Measurement and monitoring
§ 6:17 Financial rewards
§ 6:18 —Pay is linked to performance
§ 6:19 —Lockstep pay is rare
§ 6:20 —Variable pay is king
§ 6:21 —“Stars” are rewarded handsomely
§ 6:22 Non-financial rewards
§ 6:23 —Recognition
§ 6:24 —Career progression
§ 6:25 —Professional development
§ 6:26 —Flexible work opportunities
§ 6:27 Special challenges and opportunities for law firms
§ 6:28 Conclusion

Appendix 6-A. Professional Training and Development

CHAPTER 7. LAW FIRM TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS
§ 7:1 Overview
§ 7:2 Historic approaches to law firm training programs
§ 7:3 Training and development as an internal recruiting tool
§ 7:4 Framework for a training program
§ 7:5 Curriculum design
§ 7:6 Instructional and training methods
§ 7:7 Training in a multi-national context
§ 7:8 Emerging best practices
§ 7:9 Training and professional development programs for associates
§ 7:10 Practice development
§ 7:11 —Marketing plans
§ 7:12 —Goals and objectives
§ 7:13 Professional development
§ 7:14 —Access and availability
§ 7:15 —Proactive client communications
§ 7:16 —Place legal advice in context
§ 7:17 —Provide practical in work product
§ 7:18 —Understand what’s important to client
§ 7:19 —Provide clients more than they pay for
§ 7:20 —Treat the client right
§ 7:21 —Deliver the work when promised
§ 7:22 —Prepare thoroughly and act confidently

xiv
TABLE OF CONTENTS

§ 7:23 —Provide solutions
§ 7:24 —See and act on feedback
Appendix 7-A. Associate Evaluation Form
Appendix 7-B. Partnership Admission Criteria
Appendix 7-C. Associate Self-assessment Form

CHAPTER 8. BUSINESS OPERATIONS AND MANAGEMENT PROCESSES

§ 8:1 Evolution of the business operations of the law firm
§ 8:2 Historical model
§ 8:3 Aligning operations with strategy
§ 8:4 Alternative organizational structures
§ 8:5 —Traditional model
§ 8:6 —Co-equal model
§ 8:7 —Practice-driven model
§ 8:8 —Small and mid-size firms
§ 8:9 —Branch offices
§ 8:10 Egalitarian versus hierarchical management models
§ 8:11 Centralization/decentralization of the business operations
§ 8:12 Case study in outsourcing
§ 8:13 Evolution of key business functions—Finance
§ 8:14 —Human resources
§ 8:15 —Technology
§ 8:16 —Marketing
§ 8:17 —Practice support
§ 8:18 —Performance assessment
§ 8:19 Conclusion

CHAPTER 9. PRACTICE MANAGEMENT: MANAGING THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS

I. IN GENERAL

§ 9:1 Generally
§ 9:2 Definition of practice management
§ 9:3 Evolution of practice management and inefficiencies of past structures

II. BENEFITS OF EFFECTIVE PRACTICE MANAGEMENT

§ 9:4 Why implement practice management?
§ 9:5 Foundational issues
III. MECHANICS OF IMPLEMENTATION

§ 9:12 Models for effective practice management
§ 9:13 —Office/geography-driven structure
§ 9:14 —Industry-driven structure
§ 9:15 —Client-driven structure
§ 9:16 —Practice-driven structure
§ 9:17 Matrix management structures as firms grow more complex
§ 9:18 Size and makeup of groups
§ 9:19 Standards for group membership
§ 9:20 Selection of business unit leaders
§ 9:21 The business unit leader’s role and responsibilities
§ 9:22 Developing shared leadership in business units
§ 9:23 Assistance for the business unit leaders
§ 9:24 Training and developing business unit leaders
§ 9:25 Interrelation and interaction of other firm functions and systems with practice management

IV. CONCLUSION

§ 9:26 Why implement practice group management?

CHAPTER 10. LAW FIRM ANCILLARY BUSINESSES

I. IN GENERAL

§ 10:1 Introduction

II. HISTORY AND SCOPE OF ANCILLARY BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

§ 10:2 History of ancillary businesses
§ 10:3 Definitional issues
§ 10:4 Current scope of ancillary business activities
§ 10:5 Rationale for ancillary businesses
TABLE OF CONTENTS

III. IDENTIFYING AND ASSESSING ANCILLARY BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES
§ 10:6 Identifying opportunities
§ 10:7 Assessing opportunities

IV. STRUCTURING ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
§ 10:8 Generally

V. CONFORMING TO ETHICAL REQUIREMENTS
§ 10:9 Introduction
§ 10:10 Marketing considerations
§ 10:11 Conclusion

CHAPTER 11. RISK MANAGEMENT IN THE 21ST CENTURY: LEARNING FROM ROCKET SCIENCE
I. IN GENERAL
§ 11:1 Overview
§ 11:2 Defining risk management for law firms
§ 11:3 The cultural component of risk management–learning from rocket science
§ 11:4 Taking law firm risk management seriously–the pressure points
§ 11:5 The components of effective risk management in law firms
§ 11:6 Delivering risk management to law firms and lawyers
§ 11:7 Risk management audits
§ 11:8 —Processes
§ 11:9 —Organizational profile
§ 11:10 —Identification and ranking of risks
§ 11:11 —Information collection and analysis
§ 11:12 —Final report
§ 11:13 Law firm general counsels and chief risk officers
§ 11:14 Conclusion
Appendix 11-A. Risk Management Policy

CHAPTER 12. CREATING AND MANAGING A PRO BONO PROGRAM
I. IN GENERAL
§ 12:1 Overview

xvii
§ 12:2 The transformation and institutionalization of law firm pro bono
§ 12:3 An institutionalized pro bono commitment

II. STRUCTURING PRO BONO

§ 12:4 Firm pro bono committees
§ 12:5 The role of firm leadership
§ 12:6 Pro bono staffing
§ 12:7 Firm pro bono culture
§ 12:8 Metrics/benchmarking
§ 12:9 Centralized intake
§ 12:10 Parity for pro bono hours
§ 12:11 Pro bono budgets
§ 12:12 Strategic pro bono business planning
§ 12:13 Non-lawyer staff and pro bono
§ 12:14 Innovations in pro bono programming
§ 12:15 Second Acts℠
§ 12:16 Rotation/externship programs
§ 12:17 Firm-mandated pro bono
§ 12:18 The business case for pro bono
§ 12:19 Pro bono requirements for bar applicants
Appendix 12-A. Model Law Firm Pro Bono Policy

CHAPTER 13. EVOLUTION OF KEY BUSINESS FUNCTIONS—INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

§ 13:1 Introduction
§ 13:2 Critical success factors
§ 13:3 The technology portfolio
§ 13:4 Key issues and trends
§ 13:5 Law firm technology committees
Appendix 13-A. Technology and Cybersecurity Committee Charter

CHAPTER 14. ESTABLISHING AND MAINTAINING LAW FIRM DIVERSITY

§ 14:1 Overview
§ 14:2 Status of diversity efforts
§ 14:3 NALP’s diversity best practices
§ 14:4 Minority Corporate Counsel Association diversity recommendations
§ 14:5 Washington Minority Bar Associations diversity recommendations
Table of Contents

§ 14:6 Law firm organization of diversity initiatives
§ 14:7 Diversity training
Appendix 14-A. Diversity Statement

CHAPTER 15. COLLECTING INFORMATION ON PROSPECTIVE CLIENTS
§ 15:1 Role of attorney
§ 15:2 Collecting and organizing client information
§ 15:3 —Business information
§ 15:4 —Ownership information
§ 15:5 —Operating clients
§ 15:6 Initial client meeting
§ 15:7 —Preparation for the meeting
§ 15:8 —Goals and objectives of the meeting
§ 15:9 —Post-meeting communications
Appendix 15-A. Initial Client Meeting Checklist

CHAPTER 16. ESTABLISHING ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIPS
§ 16:1 Service agreements and engagement letters
§ 16:2 —Form of agreement
§ 16:3 —Scope and contents
§ 16:4 Conflicts of interest
§ 16:5 —Representation of multiple clients
§ 16:6 —Transactions between client and attorney
§ 16:7 —Service as corporate directors and officers
§ 16:8 Disclosure letters and waivers
§ 16:9 Fees and fee arrangements
§ 16:10 —Hourly fees
§ 16:11 —Capped, budget-based, and estimated fees
§ 16:12 —Discount and volume rates
§ 16:13 —Blended rates
§ 16:14 —Partner-based rates
§ 16:15 —Incentive and value-billing
§ 16:16 —Flat fee billing
§ 16:17 —Equity interests
§ 16:18 —Avoiding client misunderstandings
§ 16:19 Ethical guidelines for professional conduct
§ 16:20 —Duty of competent representation
§ 16:21 —Form and content of fee agreements
§ 16:22 —Representation of organizational entities
§ 16:23 Liabilities for failure to comply with professional duties to clients
§ 16:24 Checklist for establishing an attorney-client relationship

Appendix 16-A. Conflicts of Interest Checklist
Appendix 16-B. Conflicts of Interest Search Form
Appendix 16-C. Conflicts of Interest Search Results Memo
Appendix 16-D. Conflicts When Representing Business Clients
Appendix 16-E. Becoming a Business Counselor: A Path for New Business Associates

CHAPTER 17. BUILDING AND MANAGING CLIENT RELATIONSHIPS

§ 17:1 Executive summary
§ 17:2 File management procedures
§ 17:3 —Contents of client files
§ 17:4 —Organization of active client files
§ 17:5 —File retention
§ 17:6 —Storage of client files and records
§ 17:7 Client communications
§ 17:8 Audit letter responses
§ 17:9 Client communications and needs
§ 17:10 Client feedback and surveys
§ 17:11 Business planning services and other educational resources
§ 17:12 Telephone communication policies
§ 17:13 Ethical considerations
§ 17:14 —Preservation of client confidences
§ 17:15 Scope of duty
§ 17:16 —Permitted disclosures
§ 17:17 —Attorney-client privilege
§ 17:18 —Electronic communications
§ 17:19 Duty to communicate

Index