Index

ACCOUNTABILITY
Marketing motivation and accountability, 4:10

ACHIEVING VALUE CONVERGENCE
See STRATEGIC PLANNING

ACQUISITIONS
See MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS

ADMINISTRATION
Information technology, administrative system requirements, 13:3
Pro bono programs, administrative resources generally, 12:6 budgeting, 12:11

ADVERTISING
Ancillary businesses, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9
Marketing, generally, 4:1

AGREEMENT
Strategic planning formulations, agreement on firm’s current position, 2:12

ALIGNMENT OR MISALIGNMENT
Business operations and management process, aligning operations with strategy, 8:3
Information technology plans, alignment with business strategies, 13:2
Lockstep and professional development, misalignment of, 5:10
Natural lawyer development, alignment of professional development models with, 5:11
Professional development, alignment of goals, 6:8

ALTERNATIVES
Ancillary businesses of law firm, alternative strategies, 10:8
Business operations and management process, See BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS

ANALYSES OF INFORMATION
Risk management audits, 11:11

ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Generally, 10:1 et seq.
Advertising, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9
Alternative strategies, identifying and assessing ancillary business opportunities, 10:8
Avoidance of unauthorized practice of law, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9
Board composition issues, corporate form, 10:8
Calculation of real cost, support required from law firm, 10:7
Capital, support required from law firm, 10:7
Conclusion, 10:11
Confidence of client, maintenance of, 10:9
Consistency, identifying and assessing ancillary business opportunities, 10:7
Control issues, corporate form, 10:8
Corporate form. See CORPORATIONS
Current scope, 10:4
Definitional issues, 10:3
Development of marketing plan, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:10
Employees non-legal personnel of law firm, sharing of resources, 10:8

Index-1
ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
—Cont’d
Employees—Cont’d
sharing of resources, use of personnel of law firm, 10:8 staffing requirements, 10:7
Ethical standards
generally, 10:9 et seq.
advertising, 10:9
ancillary businesses of law firm, generally, 10:9 et seq.
avoidance of unauthorized practice of law, 10:9
confidence of client, maintenance of, 10:9
development of marketing plan, 10:10 fees, issues relating to, 10:9
implementation of marketing plan, 10:10 in-house business, special considerations for, 10:9
internal marketing, 10:10 maintenance of client confidence and secrets, 10:9
marketing considerations, generally, 10:10 organization of marketing functions, 10:10 referrals, issues arising from, 10:9
safe harbor provisions, Rule 5.7, 10:9 secrets of client, maintenance of, 10:9
solicitation, 10:9
structuring of marketing functions, 10:10 unauthorized practice of law, avoidance of, 10:9
Exit strategies, corporate form, 10:8
Fees, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9
Finances, capital support required from law firm, 10:7
Formalities of corporation, observance of, 10:8
History of practice, 10:2 et seq.
ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
—Cont’d
Marketing considerations—Cont’d development of marketing plan, 10:10
implementation of marketing plan, 10:10
internal marketing, 10:10 organization of marketing functions, 10:10
structuring of marketing functions,
10:10
Multidisciplinary practice distinguished, 10:1
Non-legal personnel of law firm, sharing of resources, 10:8
Observance of corporate formalities,
10:8
Organization of marketing functions, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:10
Other firm resources, support required from law firm, 10:7
Ownership issues, corporate form, 10:8
Rationale, 10:5
Real cost calculation and investment analysis, 10:7
Referrals, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9
Resources
non-legal personnel of law firm,
sharing of resources, 10:8
other firm resources, support
required from law firm, 10:7
Support required from law firm, generally, 10:7
ancillary businesses of law firm,
generally, 10:7
capital, 10:7
identifying and assessing ancillary business opportunities, generally, 10:7
investment analysis, 10:7 lawyer time, 10:7
other firm resources, 10:7
real cost calculation, 10:7
resources, 10:7
Tax considerations, corporate form, 10:8
Unauthorized practice of law, avoidance of, 10:9
Viability of proposed business, 10:7
ASSESSMENT
See also METRICS
Business operations, 8:18
Performance. See PERFORMANCE
Professional development, 6:16
Quality of service, measurement for marketing purposes, 4:9
Strategic planning assessment, 2:11
ASSOCIATES
Compensation, see also COMPENSATION POLICY
ASSOCIATES—Cont’d
Human capital investments, valuing, 6:28
Marketing responsibilities, accountability and motivation, 4:10
Organization. See STRUCTURE OF THE FIRM
Pro bono programs, mandatory vs voluntary, 12:17
Professional development. See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Training and professional development programs, 7:9

ATTENDANCE
Strategic planning, 2:13

ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP—Cont’d
Competent representation, duty of, 16:20
Confidentiality, 7:22, 10:9, 17:13 to 17:18 Conflicts of interest generally, 16:4 to 16:7 business clients, App. 16-D checklist, App. 16-A corporate officers and directors, service as, 16:7 multiple clients, representation of, 16:5 search form, App. 16-B search results memo, App. 16-C transactions between client and attorney, 16:6
Content of agreements. Form and content, below
Corporate officers and directors, conflicts of interest, 16:7
Disclosures
confidences of client, permitted disclosures, 17:16 crime of interest, disclosure letters and waivers, 16:8
Discount and volume rates, 16:12
Duty of competent representation, 16:20
Duty to communicate, 17:19
Educational resources, 17:11
Electronic communications, 17:18
Engagement letters. Service agreements and engagement letters, below
Equity interests, 16:17
Establishing attorney-client relationships, generally, 16:1 to 16:24
Estimated fees, 16:11
Ethical considerations
generally, 16:19 to 16:22, 17:1
confidences of client, 17:13, 17:14
duty of competent representation, 16:20
fee agreements, 16:21, 17:13
ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP—Cont’d
Ethical considerations—Cont’d
organizational entities, representation of, 16:22
Feedback from clients, 4:9, 17:10 Fees and fee arrangements
generally, 16:9 to 16:18
avoiding client misunderstandings, 16:18 blended rates, 16:13 capped, budget-based, and estimated fees, 16:11 discount and volume rates, 16:12
equity interests, 16:17
ethical considerations, 16:21, 17:13
flat fee billing, 16:16
hourly fees, 16:10
incentive and value-billing, 16:15 misunderstandings by client, avoiding, 16:18 partner-based rates, 16:14
File management generally, 17:2 to 17:6
contents of client files, 17:3 organization of active client files, 17:4 retention of files, 17:5 storage of client files and records, 17:6
Flat fee billing, 16:16
Form and content
fee agreements, 16:21
service agreements and engagement letters, 16:2, 16:3
Funds of clients, risk management, 11:5
Hourly fees, 16:10
Incentive and value-billing, 16:15
Initial client meeting generally, 15:1, 15:6 to 15:9
checklist, App. 15-A goals and objectives, 15:8
post-meeting communications, 15:9
ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP—Cont’d
Liability for failure to comply with professional duties to clients, 16:23
Managing client relationships, generally, 17:1 et seq.
Marketing’s role. See MARKETING
Misunderstandings by client, avoiding, 16:18
Models for effective practice management, client-driven structure, 9:15
Multiple clients, representation of and conflict of interest, 16:5
Needs of clients, 17:9
Organization of active client files, 17:4
Organizational entities, representation of, 16:22
Partner-based rates, 16:14
Privileged and confidential matters, 7:22, 10:9, 17:13 to 17:18
Professional duties to clients, liability for failure to comply with, 16:23
Prospective clients
client information, collection and organization of, above initial client meeting, above Representation of organizational entities, 16:22
Retention of client files, 17:5
Role of attorney, 15:1
Scope of duty, 17:15 to 18:18
Service agreements and engagement letters
generally, 16:1 to 16:3
form of agreement, 16:2
scope and contents, 16:3
Storage of client files and records, 17:6
Strategy planning, 2:1
Surveys of clients, 17:10
Telephone communication policies, 17:12
Index-5
ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP—Cont’d
Transactions between client and attorney, conflicts of interest, 16:6
Value-billing, 16:15
Waivers, disclosure letters and, 16:8
AUDITS
Risk. See RISK MANAGEMENT AUTHORITY OR AUTHORIZATION
Ancillary businesses of law firm, avoidance of unauthorized practice of law, 10:9
Business unit leaders, foundational issues, 9:10
BAR APPLICANTS
Pro bono programs, requirements, 12:19
BEHAVIOR
Professional development. See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
BENCHMARKING
Pro bono programs, 12:8
BILLABLE HOURS
Ancillary businesses, support required from law firm, 10:7
Pro bono work, billable hours credits, 12:10
BLENDED RATE FEES
Attorney-client relationships, 16:13
BOARDS
Ancillary businesses of firm, board composition issues, 10:8
BONUSES
Compensation policy, 5:21
BRANCH OFFICES
Business operations and management process, alternative organizational structures, 8:9
BUDGET-BASED FEES
Attorney-client relationship, 16:11
BUDGETS
Pro bono programs, 12:11
BUSINESS CASE
Pro bono programs, 12:18
BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS
Generally, 8:1 et seq.
Aligning operations with strategy, 8:3
Alternative organizational structures generally, 8:4 et seq.
see also PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS
branch offices, 8:9
coequal model, 8:6
mid-size firms, 8:8
practice-driven model, 8:7
small firms, 8:8
traditional model, 8:5
Branch offices, alternative organizational structures, 8:9
Centralization/decentralization, 8:11
Co-equal model, alternative organizational structures, 8:6
Conclusion, 8:19
Egalitarian versus hierarchical management models, 8:10
Evolution of business operations of law firm, generally, 8:1
Finances, evolution in key business functions, 8:13
Hierarchical management models, egalitarian versus, 8:10
Historical model, 8:2
Human resources, evolution in key business functions, 8:14
Information technology plans, alignment with business strategies, 13:2
Key business functions, evolution in generally, 8:13 et seq.
finance, 8:13
human resources, 8:14
marketing, 8:16

Index-6
BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS—Cont’d
Key business functions, evolution in —Cont’d practice support, 8:17
technology, 8:15
Marketing and business relationships, 4:8
Marketing within the business strategy of firm, 4:3
Markets and marketing, evolution in key business functions, 8:16
Mid-size firms, alternative organizational structures, 8:8
Outsourcing, case study in, 8:12
Performance assessment, 8:18
Practice support, evolution in key business functions, 8:17
Practice-driven model, alternative organizational structures, 8:7
Small firms, alternative organizational structures, 8:8
Technology, evolution in key business functions, 8:15
Traditional model, alternative organizational structures, 8:5

BUSINESS PLANNING SERVICES
Educational resources for clients, 17:11

BUSINESS UNITS
See PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS

BUY-INS
Strategic planning, buy-in involving key players, 2:10

CAPABILITY MATURITY MODEL
Information technology governance, 13:2

CAPITAL
Ancillary businesses, support required from firm, 10:7

CAPPED FEES
Attorney-client relationships, 16:11

CAREER PROGRESSION
Professional development, non-financial rewards, 6:24

CASE INTAKE
Pro bono programs, centralized intake, 12:9

CENTRALIZATION
DECENTRALIZATION
Business operations and management process, 8:11
Pro bono, centralized intake, 12:9

CHIEF RISK OFFICERS
Generally, 11:13

COACHING
Professional development, 6:15

COLLECTION OF INFORMATION
Risk management audits, 11:11

COMMITTEES
Pro bono programs, 12:4

COMMODITIZATION OF LEGAL SERVICES
Generally, 9:1

COMMON MESSAGES
Professional development, summary of key findings, 6:5

COMMUNICATION
Attorney-client communications. See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP
Professional development, summary of key findings, 6:4

COMPENSATION POLICY
Generally, 5:1 et seq.
Alignment or misalignment, lockstep and professional development, misalignment of, 5:10
Benefits of multi-tier and single-tier structures, 5:5
Bonuses, 5:21
Breaking of lockstep mentality, 5:9
Comparison of equity and income partners, 5:2

Index-7
COMPENSATION POLICY
—Cont’d
Cradle to grave compensation planning, 5:24
Criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Disadvantages of multi-tier and single-tier structures, 5:5
Equity partners
generally, 5:2
criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Income partners
generally, 5:2
criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Key operational areas, treatment of, 5:4
Later professional years, 5:25
Law firm leaders, 3:15
Leadership, 3:15
Leading edge models, partner compensation, 5:19
Linking compensation to practice management and teamwork objectives, 5:22
Lockstep
breaking of lockstep mentality,
new model of professional development, 5:9
misalignment of lockstep and professional development, 5:10
Management-driven compensation, 5:20
Mergers, compensation issues, 5:7
Multi-tier structures, benefits and disadvantages of, 5:5
New approaches to partner compensation, 5:18
New model of professional development
breaking of lockstep mentality, 5:9
misalignment of lockstep and professional development, 5:10
COMPETITION
See MARKETING
CONFIDENTIALITY
Attorney-client relationships, 7:22, 10:9, 17:13 to 17:18
CONFLICTS OF INTEREST
Attorneys. See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP CONFORMITY
Ancillary businesses of law firm. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
CONSISTENCY
Ancillary businesses, identifying and assessing, 10:7
CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION
Professional development. See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION—Cont’d
Training. See TRAINING PROGRAMS

CONTRACTION EFFORTS
Strategic planning, achieving value convergence, 2:8

CONTROL
Ancillary businesses of law firm, corporate form, 10:8

CORPORATIONS
Generally, 10:8
Ancillary businesses of law firm, generally, 10:8
Board composition issues, 10:8
Control issues, 10:8
Exit strategies, 10:8
Formalities of corporation, observance of, 10:8
Liability issues, 10:8
Observance of corporate formalities, 10:8
Ownership issues, 10:8
Structuring ancillary business generally, 10:8
board composition issues, 10:8
control issues, 10:8
exit strategies, 10:8
formalities of corporation, observance of, 10:8
liability issues, 10:8
observance of corporate formalities, 10:8
ownership issues, 10:8
tax considerations, 10:8
Tax considerations, 10:8

COSTS AND EXPENSES
See also COMPENSATION POLICY
Ancillary businesses, calculation of real costs, 10:7
Evolution of finance operations, 8:13
Information technology, 13:4

CRITERIA
Professional development, external criteria, 6:11

CRITICAL SUCCESS FACTORS
Strategic direction, identification of, 2:13

CULTURAL COMPONENTS
Information technology, culture problems, 13:2
Pro bono culture in firm generally, 12:7
business case for pro bono, 12:18
Professional development, summary of key findings, 6:4
Risk management, learning from rocket science, 11:3

CURRENT POSITION
Strategic planning. See STRATEGIC PLANNING

CYBERSECURITY
Technology and Cybersecurity Committee Charter, App. 13-A

DATA
See also INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
Strategy formulation, key principles of successful strategies, 2:10

DEFINITIONS
Operational management, 9:1
Partnership structure and compensation, definition of professional development stages, 5:15
Practice management, 9:2
Risk management, 11:2
Strategy, 2:1

DELEGATION
Leadership. See LEADERSHIP

DEVELOPMENT
Ancillary businesses of law firm, development of marketing plan, 10:10
Leadership development. See LEADERSHIP
Practice management through business units shared leadership in business units, developing, 9:22

Index-9
DEVELOPMENT—Cont’d
Practice management through business units—Cont’d unit leader training and development, mechanics of implementation. 9:24 Professional. See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT Structure of the firm
linking professional development and compensation. 5:16
structuring developmental categories, 5:13
Training. See TRAINING PROGRAMS

DIALOGUE
Professional development, summary of key findings, 6:6

DISCLOSURES
See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

DISCOUNT AND VOLUME RATE FEES
Attorney-client relationships, 16:12

DISTRIBUTION
Professional development, forced distribution, 6:14

DIVERSITY
Generally, 14:1 to 14:7, App. 14-A Initiatives of law firm organization, 14:6
Minority Corporate Counsel Association recommendations, 14:4
NALP’s best practices, 14:3
Status of efforts, 14:2
Training, 14:7
Washington Minority Bar Association recommendations, 14:5

EDUCATION
Business planning services, educational resources for clients, 17:11
Continuing legal education. See CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION Training programs. See TRAINING PROGRAMS

EFFECTIVENESS
Marketing’s role, 4:7

EGALITARIAN VERSUS HIERARCHICAL MANAGEMENT MODELS
Business operations and management process, 8:10

ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS
Attorney-client relationship, 17:18

EMOTIONAL INTELLIGENCE
Leadership, skills of effective law firm leaders, 3:11

EMPLOYEES
Non-legal. See NON-LEGAL EMPLOYEES

EQUITY
See also COMPENSATION POLICY; STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP

EQUITY INTERESTS
Attorney-client relationships, 16:17

EQUITY PARTNERS
See also COMPENSATION POLICY; STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP
Comparison of equity and income partners, 5:2
Criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3

ESTIMATED FEES
Attorney-client relationships, 16:11

ETHICAL STANDARDS
Ancillary firm businesses. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Attorney-client relationship. See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP
Pro bono programs, 12:1

EVALUATIONS
Leadership, evaluation of manager partner performance, 3:16
Professional development, performance review training, 6:12
INDEX

EVOLUTION
Business functions. See BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS
Finance operations, 8:13
Human resources operations, 8:14
Information technology, evolution in key business functions, 8:15
Marketing, 8:16
Practice management through business units, 9:3
Practice support, 8:17
EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION
See also COMPENSATION POLICY
Law firm leaders, 3:15
EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS
Leadership, delegation, 3:14
EXIT STRATEGIES
Ancillary businesses of firms, 10:8
EXPANSION TACTICS
Strategic planning, achieving value convergence, 2:6
EXPENSES
See COSTS AND EXPENSES
EXTERNAL CRITERIA
Professional development, performance management systems and practices, 6:11
EXTERNAL FOCUS
Leadership, skills of effective law firm leaders, 3:9
EXTERNAL INTERVIEWS
Strategic planning formulation, 2:11
EXTERNSHIP PROGRAMS
Pro bono, 12:16
FEEDBACK
Client relationships, 4:9, 17:10
Professional development. See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT FEES
Ancillary businesses of law firm, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9
Attorney-client relationship. See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP
FINAL REPORTS
Risk management audits, 11:12
FINANCES
Ancillary businesses of firms. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Business operations and management processes, 8:13
Strategic planning. See STRATEGIC PLANNING
FINANCIAL REWARDS
See COMPENSATION POLICY
FIRM GOVERNANCE
See GOVERNANCE
FLAT FEE BILLING
Attorney-client relationships, 16:16
FLEXIBLE WORK OPPORTUNITIES
Professional development, non-financial rewards, 6:25
FORCED DISTRIBUTION
Professional development, performance management systems and practices, 6:14
FORMALITIES
Ancillary businesses of law firm, observance of formalities of corporation, 10:8
FORMULATION
Strategic planning. See STRATEGIC PLANNING FUTURE
Future of law firm marketing, 4:12
GARTNER NETWORK MATURITY MODEL
Information technology governance, 13:2

Index-11
GENERAL COUNSELS
Risk management functions, 11:13

GEOGRAPHY-DRIVEN STRUCTURE
Models for effective practice management, 9:13

GLOBAL PRACTICE
Pro bono programs, global, 12:14
Training programs, global aspects, 7:7

GOALS
Firm goals, linking compensation to, 5:27
Professional development, goal alignment, 6:8

GOVERNANCE
Capability Maturity Model, 13:2
Gartner Network Maturity Model, 13:2
Information technology, 13:2
Practice management through business units, 9:7
Risk management principles, integration in firm governance, 11:14

GROUP STRATEGIES
Practice management through business units, 9:18

HIERARCHICAL MANAGEMENT MODELS
Business operations, egalitarian versus hierarchical management models, 8:10

HISTORY
Ancillary businesses of law firm. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Business operations and management process, historical model, 8:2

HOURLY FEES
Attorney-client relationships, 16:10

HUMAN RESOURCES
Business operations and management process, evolution in key busi-

HUMAN RESOURCES—Cont’d
ness functions, 8:14

IDENTIFICATION
Ancillary businesses of firms. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Corporations. See CORPORATIONS
Risk management audits, identification of risks, 11:10
Strategic planning, identifying strategic direction, 2:13

IMPLEMENTATION
Ancillary businesses, implementation of marketing plan, 10:10
Strategic planning, 2:14

INCENTIVE AND VALUE-BILLING
Attorney-client relationships, 16:15

INCOME PARTNERS
See also COMPENSATION POLICY;
STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP
Comparison of equity and income partners, 5:2
Criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3

INDUSTRY OUTLOOK AND TRENDS
Generally, 1:1
See MANAGEMENT

INDUSTRY-DRIVEN STRUCTURE
Models for effective practice management, 9:14

INFORMATION COLLECTION AND ANALYSIS
Client information, collection and organization of. See ATTORNEY-COMPANY RELATIONSHIP
Risk management audits, 11:11

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
Generally, 13:1 et seq.
Administrative system requirements, 13:3
Aligning IT plans with business strategies, 13:2
INDEX

INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY —Cont’d
Business operations and management process, evolution in key business functions, 8:15
Business support system requirements, 13:3
Capability Maturity Model, 13:2
Case management applications, 13:3
Core application requirements, 13:3
Costs, 13:4
Critical success factors, 13:2
Culture problems, 13:2
Data center consolidation as among key issues and trends, 13:4
Evolution in key business functions, 8:15, 13:1 et seq.
Gartner Network Maturity Model, 13:2
Governance of IT, 13:2
Infrastructure requirements, 13:3
Key issues and trends, 13:4
Law firm technology committees, 13:5
Litigation support applications, 13:3
Marketing, technology as a competitive advantage, 4:11
Portfolio, 13:3
Practice support applications, 13:3
Risk management, 11:14
Technology and Cybersecurity Committee Charter, App. 13-A Technology committees, law firms, 13:5
Wide-area networks, 13:2

IN-HOUSE BUSINESSES
Ethical requirements, 10:9

INITIAL PROJECT PHASES
Strategic planning, implementation, 2:14

INSIGHTS
Strategic planning, key principles of successful strategy formulation, 2:10

INSURANCE
Ancillary business opportunities, insurance issues, 10:8
Malpractice claims experience, 11:1
Risk management, insurers’ roles, 11:14
Risks, insurers’ considerations, 11:4

INTAKE
Pro bono, centralized intake, 12:9

INTANGIBLE RISKS
See also RISK MANAGEMENT
Ancillary businesses of law firm, identifying and assessing, 10:7

INTEGRATION
Partnership structure and compensation, integration of lawyer development models and compensation, 5:17

INTERNAL INTERVIEWS
Strategic planning, assessing firm’s current position, 2:11

INTERNAL MARKETING
Ancillary businesses of firms, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:10

INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS ORGANIZATION (ISO)
Risk management principles, 11:14

INTERNSHIPS
Marketing internship plans, 4:8

INTERVIEWS
Strategic planning. See STRATEGIC PLANNING

INVESTMENTS
Ancillary businesses of firms, investment analyses, 10:7

KEY BUSINESS FUNCTIONS
Evolution in. See BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS

KEY CLIENTS
See CLIENT RELATIONSHIPS

Index-13
KEY OPERATIONAL AREAS, TREATMENT OF
Partnership structure and compensation, 5:4

LA W FIRM TECHNOLOGY
COMMITTEES
Information technology, 13:5

LEADERSHIP
Generally, 3:1 et seq.
Compensation, 3:15
Competencies, importance of, 3:6
Delegation
generally, 3:12 et seq.
executive director, 3:14 practice groups, 3:13
Development leaders, 3:18
succession planning, 3:17
Effective leadership for lawyers,
App. 3-A
Emotional intelligence, 3:11
Evaluation of manager partner performance, 3:16
Executive compensation, 3:15
Executive directors, 3:14
External focus, 3:9
Finding and developing leaders, 3:18
Internal vs external focus, 3:9
Leaders are made, not born, 3:5
Managing partners, responsibilities of, 3:3
Marketing, leadership involvement, 4:2
Partners
evaluation of manager partner performance, 3:16 responsibilities of managing partners, 3:3
Performance of manager partner, evaluation of, 3:16
Practice groups, 3:13
Pro bono, role of firm leadership, 12:5
Professional development, summary of key findings, 6:3

LEADERSHIP—Cont’d
Research references, 3:7
Scholarship on leadership, 3:2
Skills of effective law firm leaders
generally, 3:4 et seq.
competencies, importance of, 3:6
emotional intelligence, 3:11
external focus, 3:9
strategic thinking, 3:10
styles of leadership, 3:8
Strategic thinking, skills of effective law firm leaders, 3:10
Styles of leadership, 3:8
Succession planning, 3:17
Terms of office, 3:17

LEADING EDGE MODELS
Partner compensation, leading edge models of, 5:19

LIABILITIES
See also RISK MANAGEMENT
Ancillary businesses, corporate form, 10:8

LINKING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND COMPENSATION
Partnership structure and compensation, 5:16

LITIGATION SUPPORT NEEDS
Information technology, key issues and trends, 13:4

LOCKSTEP MENTALITY
See also COMPENSATION POLICY;
STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP
Breaking of, 5:9
Compensation policies, 6:19
Professional development, misalign-ment of, 5:10

MAKEUP OF GROUPS
Practice management through business units, 9:18

MALPRACTICE
Claims experience, 11:1
INDEX

MANAGEMENT
Business operations and management process. See BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS

Business unit approach to practice management. See PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS

Client funds, management risks, 11:5

Compensation policy. See COMPENSATION POLICY

Critical success factors, information technology, 13:2

Industry outlook and trends, 1:1

Information technology. See INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Leadership responsibilities, managing partners, 3:3

Matrix management, 9:17

Partnership structure. See STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP

Practice management through business units. See PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS

Pro bono programs. See PRO BONO PROGRAMS

Professional development, summary of key findings, 6:3

Risks. See RISK MANAGEMENT

MARKETING
Generally, 4:1 et seq.

Accountability of firm members for, 4:10

Advertising and, 4:1

Building and managing client relationships, generally, 4:1 et seq.

Business operations and management process, evolution in key business functions, 8:16

Business relationships, 4:8

Business strategy of firm, marketing within, 4:3

Client feedback sessions, 4:9

Client Relationship Management, 4:8

Client service plans, 4:8

MARKETING—Cont’d

Commoditization of legal services, 9:1

Competition impacting, 4:12

Competitive advantage, 4:3, 4:11

Defining a firm’s market, 4:4

Effectiveness of marketing role, 4:7

Focused and unfocused firms, 4:5

Formal programs, 4:1

Function/process distinctions, 4:2

Future of law firm marketing, 4:12

Internship programs, 4:8

Internships with specific clients, 4:8

Key account teams, 4:8

Key business functions, evolution of, 8:16

Key client strategies, 4:8

Key concepts underlying marketing strategy, 4:4

Leadership involvement, 4:2

Measuring service quality, 4:9

Motivating firm members, 4:10

Performance/marketing relationships, 4:1

Positioning

Generally, 4:5

focused and unfocused firms, 4:5

three key concepts underlying marketing strategy, 4:4

Practice management. See PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS

Process, 4:6

Process/function distinctions, 4:2

Quality of service, measurement of, 4:9

Secondments with specific clients, 4:8

Segmentation, 4:4

Service plans, 4:8

Service to client and business relationships, 4:8

Seven bases of competitive capability, 4:5

Soft skills, 4:9

Structured programs, 4:1
MARKETING—Cont’d
Technology as a competitive advantage, 4:11
Three key concepts underlying marketing strategy, 4:4

MEASUREMENT
See ASSESSMENT

MEETINGS
Strategic planning, 2:13

MERGERS AND ACQUISITIONS
Ancillary businesses. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Buy-ins involving key players, 2:10
Compensation issues, 5:7, 5:23
Expansion tactics, 2:6
Structure of the firm, mergers, in the context of generally, 5:7
see also STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP

METRICS
Business operations and management processes, 8:18
Pro bono programs, 12:8

MID-SIZE FIRMS
Business operations and management process, alternative organizational structures, 8:8

MIGRATION
Strategic planning, achieving value convergence, 2:7

MINORITY CORPORATE COUNSEL ASSOCIATION
Diversity recommendations, 14:4

MISALIGNMENT
See ALIGNMENT OR MISALIGNMENT

MODELS
Bonuses, new model of professional development, 5:21
Business operation structures co-equal model, 8:6
historical model, 8:2

MODELS—Cont’d
Business operation structures —Cont’d
practice-driven model, 8:7
traditional model, 8:5
Business unit organization. See PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS
Capability Maturity Model, 13:2
Client relationships, models for effective practice management, 9:15
Co-equal model, alternative organizational structures, 8:6
Compensation leading edge models, 5:19
lockstep model, breaking of, 5:9
Egalitarian versus hierarchical management models, 8:10
Gartner Network Maturity Model, 13:2
Hierarchical management models, egalitarian versus, 8:10
Historical model of business operations and management processes, 8:2
Industry-driven models for effective practice management, 9:14
Information technology, 13:2
Integration of lawyer development models and compensation, 5:17
Lawyer development models, 5:17
Leading edge models of partner compensation, 5:19
Office-driven structure models for effective practice management, 9:13 Partners and partnerships compensation, leading edge models of, 5:19 success-driven professional development and progression models, 5:12
Practice management through business units, mechanics of implementation, 9:12 et seq.
Practice-driven business organization model, 8:7

Index-16
MODELS—Cont’d
Practice-driven models
business operations, 8:7
effective practice management, 9:16
Pro bono programs, App. 12-A
Professional development. See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Traditional business operations model, 8:5
MONITORING
Professional development, performance management systems and practices, 6:16
MOTIVATION
Strategy formulation, key principles of successful, 2:10
MOVEMENT
Partnership tiers, movement between, 5:6
MULTIDISCIPLINARY PRACTICE
Ancillary businesses of law firms distinguished, 10:1
MULTIPLE CLIENTS
Attorney-client relationships, representation of and conflict of interest, 16:5
MULTI-RATER FEEDBACK
Professional development, performance management systems and practices, 6:9
MULTI-TIER STRUCTURES
Partnership structure and compensation, benefits and disadvantages of multi-tier structures, 5:5
NALP’S BEST PRACTICES
Diversity, 14:3
NEW MODEL OF PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
See PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
NON-FINANCIAL REWARDS
See COMPENSATION POLICY
NON-LEGAL EMPLOYEES
Ancillary businesses involving. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Outsourcing. See OUTSOURCING
Performance management generally, 6:7 et seq.
alignment of goals, 6:8
behavior, 6:10
coaching, 6:15
distribution, forced, 6:14 evaluations, performance review training, 6:12
external criteria, 6:11
feedback, 6:9, 6:15
forced distribution, 6:14 goal alignment, 6:8
measurement, 6:16
monitoring, 6:16
multi-rater feedback, 6:9
performance planning, 6:13 performance review training, 6:12
results, 6:10
reviews, performance review training, 6:12
Pro bono staffing generally, 12:13
budgeting, 12:11
Professional development, dialogue with employees, 6:6
Training. See TRAINING PROGRAMS
NON-LEGAL SERVICES
See also ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Multidisciplinary practice, 10:1
OBSERVANCE OF CORPORATE FORMALITIES
Ancillary businesses of law firm, 10:8
OFFICE-DRIVEN STRUCTURE
Models for effective practice management, 9:13
OPERATIONAL MANAGEMENT
Generally, 9:1
See also PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS

Index-17
ORGANIZATION
See also Practice Management Through Business Units; Structure of the Firm
Marketing functions, ancillary businesses, 10:10

ORGANIZATIONAL ENTITIES
Attorney-client relationships, representation of organizational entities, 16:22

ORGANIZATIONAL PROFILE
Risk management audits, 11:9

OUTSOURCING
Business operations and management process, case study in outsourcing, 8:12
Information technology, key issues and trends, 13:4

OWNERSHIP
Ancillary businesses of law firm, corporate form, 10:8

PARITY
Pro bono hours credits, 12:10

PARTNERS
Attorney-client relationships, partner-based rates, 16:14
Comparison of equity and income partners, 5:2
Compensation. See Compensation Policy
Criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Equity and income partners compared, 5:2, 5:3
Income and equity partners compared, 5:2, 5:3
Leadership development. See also Leadership
Management-driven compensation, 5:20
New approaches to partner compensation, 5:18
Organization. See Structure of the Firm

PARTNERS—Cont’d
Practice management, partner buy-in and accountability, foundational issues, 9:8
Pro bono program administrators, 12:6
Risks, individual partners’, 11:4
Second Acts Project, pro bono activities for retired partners, 12:15

PARTNERSHIP GOVERNANCE
See Governance

PARTNERSHIP STRUCTURE
See Structure of the Firm

PERFORMANCE
Assessment or metrics, business operations and management process, 8:18
Business operations, performance assessment, 8:18
Compensation/performance linkages, 6:18
Leadership, evaluation of performance of manager partner, 3:16 Management systems and practices. See Professional Development Marketing/performance relationships, 4:1
Multi-rater feedback, 6:9
Non-legal employees. See Non-Legal Employees
Professional development. Professional Development

PERFORMANCE METRICS
Strategic planning, 2:15

PHASE ONE
Strategic plan, formulation of, 2:11

PHASE TWO
Strategic planning, agreement on firm’s current position, 2:12

PHASE THREE
Strategic direction, identification of, 2:13
PHASE FOUR
Strategic planning, implementation, 2:14

PLANNING
See also STRATEGIC PLANNING
Compensation policy generally, 3:15 cradle to grave compensation planning, 5:24
Risk management audits, 11:8
Succession planning, 3:17

POSITIONING IN PROFESSIONAL SERVICES
Marketing’s role, 4:5

PRACTICE GROUPS
Leadership, delegation, 3:13

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS
Generally, 9:1 et seq.
Assistance for the business unit leaders, 9:23
Authority for business unit leaders, foundational issues, 9:10
Benefits of, 9:4, 9:26
Clear authority for business unit leaders, foundational issues, 9:10
Client-driven structure, 9:15
Commoditization of legal services, 9:1
Compensation. See COMPENSATION
Conclusion, 9:26
Definitions, 9:1
Development
  shared leadership in business units, developing, 9:22 unit leader training and development, 9:24
Egalitarian versus hierarchical management models, 8:10
Evolution of practice management and inefficiencies of past structures, 9:3
Foundational issues, 9:5 et seq.
Geography-driven structure, 9:13

PRACTICE MANAGEMENT THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS
—Cont’d
Group makeup, 9:18
Hierarchical management models, egalitarian versus, 8:10
Industry-driven structure, 9:14
Interrelation and interaction of other firm functions and systems with practice management, 9:25
Makeup of groups, 9:18
Management/governance, foundational issues, 9:7
Matrix management structures as firm complexity increases, mechanics of implementation, 9:17
Mechanics of implementation, 9:12 et seq.
Models for effective practice management, mechanics of implementation generally, 9:12 et seq.
client-driven structure, 9:15
geography-driven structure, 9:13
industry-driven structure, 9:14
office-driven structure, 9:13
practice-driven structure, 9:16
Office-driven structure, 9:13
Operational management generally, 9:1
foundational issues, 9:11
Partner buy-in and accountability, foundational issues, 9:8
Practice-driven structure, 9:16
Reasons to implement, 9:4, 9:26
Selection of business group leaders, mechanics of implementation, 9:20
Shared leadership in business units, developing, 9:22
Size of firm and benefits of, 9:26
Size of groups, 9:18
Standards for group membership, mechanics of implementation, 9:19
Strategy, foundational issues, 9:6

Index-19
PRACTICE MANAGEMENT
THROUGH BUSINESS UNITS
—Cont’d
Training and development of unit leader, mechanics of implementation, 9:24
Unit leader’s role and responsibilities, mechanics of implementation, 9:21

PRACTICE RISK
Generally, 11:14
See also Risk Management

PRACTICE SUPPORT
Business operations and management process, evolution in key business functions, 8:17

PRACTICE-DRIVEN MODELS
Business operations and management process, alternative organizational structures, 8:7

PRACTICE-DRIVEN STRUCTURES
Models for effective practice management, 9:16

PRESSURE POINTS
Taking law firm risk management seriously, 11:4

PRIVILEGED AND CONFIDENTIAL MATTERS
Attorney-client relationships, 7:22, 10:9, 17:13 to 17:18

PRO BONO PROGRAMS
Generally, 12:1 et seq., App. 12-A Administrative resources generally, 12:6
budgeting, 12:11
Administrators, 12:6
Bar applicants, requirements, 12:19
Benchmarking, 12:8
Billable hours credits, 12:10
Budgets, 12:11
Business case for pro bono, 12:18
Centralized intake, 12:9
Commitment pledges, 12:3
Committees, 12:4
Control of case intake, 12:9
Creating and managing effective and vibrant program, 12:1 et seq.
Culture for pro bono in firm generally, 12:7
business case for pro bono, 12:18
Ethical standards and obligations, 12:1
Externship programs, 12:16
Formal and informal programs, 12:2, 12:3
Global pro bono, 12:14
Grass roots vs leadership support, 12:5
Innovations in pro bono programming, 12:14
Institutionalization of pro bono, 12:2
Institutionalized pro bono commitment, 12:3
Mandatory vs voluntary, 12:17
Metrics, 12:8
Non-lawyer staff generally, 12:13
budgeting, 12:11
Overview of creating and managing effective and vibrant program, 12:1
Parity for pro bono hours credits, 12:10
Partner administrators, 12:6
Pledges of commitment, 12:3
Professional development programs within, 12:6
Role of firm leadership, 12:5
Rotation programs, 12:16
Second Acts Project, 12:15
Signature projects, 12:14
Staffing generally, 12:6
budgeting, 12:11
non-lawyer staff, above
Strategic planning for pro bono, 12:12

Index-20
PRO BONO PROGRAMS—Cont’d
Structuring pro bono, 12:4 et seq.
Transactional pro bono, 12:14
Transformation and institutionalization of pro bono, 12:2
Voluntary vs mandated, 12:17

PROCESSES
Marketing’s role, 4:6
Risk management audits, 11:8

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
Generally, 6:1 et seq., 7:13 et seq., App. 6-A See also TRAINING PROGRAMS
Access and availability, 7:14
Act confidently and prepare thoroughly, 7:22
Alignment of goals, performance management systems and practices, 6:8
Associate Evaluation Form, App. 7-A
Associate Self-assessment Form, App. 7-C
Associates, training and development programs, 7:9
Behavior
performance management systems and practices, 6:10
professional development, summary of key findings, 6:4
Business unit leaders, 9:24
Career progression, non-financial rewards, 6:24
Coaching, performance management systems and practices, 6:15
Common messages, summary of key findings, 6:5
Communication, summary of key findings, 6:4
Compensation. See COMPENSATION POLICY
Context of legal advice, 7:16
Criteria, performance management systems and practices, 6:11
Culture, summary of key findings, 6:4

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT—Cont’d
Delivering work when promised, 7:21
Dialogue with employees, summary of key findings, 6:6
Distribution, forced, 6:14
Employees, dialogue with, 6:6
Evaluations, performance review training, 6:12
External criteria, performance management systems and practices, 6:11
Feedback
see and act on, 7:24
performance management systems and practices, 6:9, 6:15
Flexible work opportunities, non-financial rewards, 6:26
Forced distribution, performance management systems and practices, 6:14
Goal alignment, performance management systems and practices, 6:8
Goals and objectives, 7:12
Human capital investments, valuing, 6:28
Leadership, summary of key findings, 6:3
Lockstep pay, rarity of, 6:19
Management, summary of key findings, 6:3
Marketing plans, 7:11
Measurement, performance management systems and practices, 6:16
Monitoring, performance management systems and practices, 6:16
Multi-rater feedback, performance management systems and practices, 6:9
New model of
generally, 5:8 et seq.
bonuses, 5:21
breaking of lockstep mentality, 5:9

Index-21
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
—Cont’d
New model of—Cont’d
cradle to grave compensation planning, 5:24
definition of professional development stages, 5:15 firm strategy and practice requirements, linking development categories to, 5:14 integration of lawyer development models and compensation, 5:17
later professional years, managing compensation in, 5:25
leading edge models of partner compensation, 5:19
linking professional development and compensation, 5:16
management-driven compensation, 5:20 merger, compensation approaches in, 5:23
misalignment of lockstep and professional development, 5:10
new approaches to partner compensation, 5:18 objectives, linking compensation to practice management and teamwork objectives, 5:22 progressional models, success-driven professional development and, 5:12 retirement, transition to, 5:26 special situation compensation, 5:23
structuring developmental categories, 5:13
success-driven professional development and progression models, 5:12 teamwork objectives, linking compensation to practice management and, 5:22 Non-financial rewards generally, 6:22 et seq.
career progression, 6:24

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
—Cont’d
Non-financial rewards—Cont’d
flexible work opportunities, 6:26 progression of career, 6:24 recognition, 6:23
Partnership Admission Criteria, App. 7-B
Partnership structure. See STRUCTURE OF THE PARTNERSHIP
Performance management systems and practices generally, 6:7 et seq.
alignment of goals, 6:8
behavior, 6:10
coaching, 6:15
distribution, forced, 6:14
evaluations, performance review training, 6:12
external criteria, 6:11
feedback, 6:9, 6:15
forced distribution, 6:14 goal alignment, 6:8
measurement, 6:16
monitoring, 6:16
multi-rater feedback, 6:9
pay linked to performance, 6:18
performance planning, 6:13
performance review training, 6:12
reviews, performance review training, 6:12
Performance planning, 6:13
Practice development, 7:10 to 7:12
Prepare thoroughly and act confidently, 7:22
Pro bono programs, professional development within, 12:6
Proactive client communications, 7:15
Progression of career, non-financial rewards, 6:24
Provide solutions, 7:23
Providing clients more than they pay for, 7:19
Rarity of lockstep pay, 6:19

Non-financial rewards

Index-22
PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT
—Cont’d
Recognition, non-financial rewards, 6:23
Results, performance management systems and practices, 6:10
Reviews, performance review training, 6:12
Special challenges and opportunities for law firms, 6:27
Stars rewarded handsomely, 6:21
Summary of key findings generally, 6:2 et seq.
behavior, 6:4
common messages, 6:5
communication, 6:4
culture, 6:4
dialogue with employees, 6:6 employees, dialogue with, 6:6
leadership, 6:3
management, 6:3
Training, App. 6-A
Treating clients right, 7:20
Understand what’s important to client, 7:18
Variable pay, 6:20
Work product, practically, 7:17

PROGRESSION
Partnership structure and compensation, success-driven professional development and progression models, 5:12
Professional development, progression of career, 6:24

PROSPECTIVE CLIENTS
See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

QUALITY OF SERVICE
Measurement for marketing purposes, 4:9

RANKING OF RISKS
Risk management audits, 11:10

RECOGNITION
Professional development, non-financial rewards, 6:23

RECRUITING
Training and development programs as recruiting tool, 7:3

REFERRALS
Ancillary businesses of law firm, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9

REPORTS AND REPORTING
Risk management audits, 11:12
2020 Report on the State of the Legal Market, App. 1-A

RESOURCES
Ancillary businesses of law firm. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Business operations and management process. See BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS

RESULTS
Professional development, performance management systems and practices, 6:10

RETENTION OF CLIENT FILES
Attorney-client relationship, 17:5

RETIREMENT
Partnership structure and compensation, transition to retirement, 5:26
Second Acts Project, pro bono activities for retired partners, 12:15

RETREAT
Strategic planning, retreat preparation and attendance, 2:13

REVIEWS
Professional development, performance review training, 6:12

RISK MANAGEMENT
Generally, 11:1 et seq., App. 11-A
Analysis of information, risk management audits, 11:11
Ancillary businesses of law firm, identifying and assessing ancillary business opportunities, 10:7

Index-23
RISK MANAGEMENT—Cont’d
Audits
generally, 11:7 et seq.
analysis of information, 11:11
collection of information, 11:11
final report, 11:12 identification of risks, 11:10 information collection and analysis, 11:11 organizational profile, 11:9
planning, 11:8
processes, 11:8
ranking of risks, 11:10 report, final, 11:12 response, audit letter responses, 17:8
Benefits of formal programs, 11:14
Chief risk officers, 11:13
Claims experience, 11:1
Client funds management, 11:5
Collection of information, risk management audits, 11:11 Components of effective risk management in law firms, 11:5
Conclusion, 11:14
Cultural component of risk management, learning from rocket science, 11:3
Data protection, 11:14
Definitions of risk, 11:2
Delivering risk management to law firms and lawyers, 11:6
Final report, risk management audits, 11:12
Formal programs, benefits of, 11:14
General counsels’ responsibilities, 11:13
Identification of risks, risk management audits, 11:10
Individual partners’ risks, 11:4
Information collection and analysis, risk management audits, 11:11
Information technology, 11:14
Insurers’ considerations, 11:4
Insurers’ roles, 11:14

RISK MANAGEMENT—Cont’d
Integration of risk management principles in firm governance, 11:14
International Standards Organization principles, 11:14
Law firms general counsels’ responsibilities, 11:13
Malpractice claims experience, 11:1
Organizational profile, risk management audits, 11:9
Planning, audit, 11:8
Practice risk, 11:14
Pressure points, taking risks seriously, 11:4
Processes, risk management audits, 11:8
Ranking of risks, risk management audits, 11:12
Reports, risk management audits, 11:10
Responding to risks, strategic planning, 2:1
Strategic planning, responding to risks, 2:1
Taking risks seriously, 11:4

ROTATION PROGRAMS
Pro bono activities, 12:16

SAFE HARBOR PROVISIONS
Ancillary businesses of law firm, Rule 5.7, 10:9

SCHOLARSHIP
Leading the law firm, 3:2

SECOND ACTS PROJECT
Pro bono activities for retired partners, 12:15

SECRETS
Ancillary businesses of law firm, secrets of client, 10:9

SEGMENTATION
Marketing, 4:4
SERVICE AGREEMENTS AND ENGAGEMENT LETTERS
Attorney-client relationship. See ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP

SHARING OF RESOURCES
Ancillary businesses of law firm. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES

SINGLE-TIER STRUCTURES
Partnership structure and compensation, benefits and disadvantages of single-tier structures, 5:5

SIZE OF GROUPS
Practice management through business units, 9:18

SMALL FIRMS
Business operations and management process, alternative organizational structures, 8:8
2020 State of U.S. Small Law Firms Study, App. 1-A

SOFTWARE SKILLS
Marketing, 4:9

SOLICITATION
Ancillary businesses of law firm, conforming to ethical requirements, 10:9

STARS
Professional development, stars rewarded handsomely, 6:21

STORAGE AREA NETWORKS
Information technology, key issues and trends, 13:4

STORAGE OF CLIENT FILES AND RECORDS
Attorney-client relationship, 17:6

STRATEGIC PLANNING
Generally, 2:1 et seq.
Achieving value convergence generally, 2:5 et seq.
contraction efforts, 2:8
expansion tactics, 2:6
migration efforts, 2:7

STRATEGIC PLANNING—Cont’d
Agreement on firm’s current position, formulating strategic plan, 2:12 Approach to strategic process, generally, 2:2 et seq.
Assessment
  current position of firm, 2:11
  formulating strategic plan, 2:11
Attendance, formulating strategic plan, 2:13
Buy-in involving key players, key principles of successful strategy formulation, 2:10
Checklist for formulating and implementing a strategic plan, 2:16
Client base, analysis of, 2:11
Client focus, 2:1
Conservatism and, 2:1
Critical success factors, identifying strategic direction, 2:13
Data, key principles of successful strategy formulation, 2:10
Definitions, 2:1
Democratization of, 2:1
Expansion tactics, achieving value convergence, 2:6
External interviews, formulating strategic plan, 2:11
Finances
  current position, financial review, 2:11
  formulating strategic plan, 2:11
Formulating a strategic plan generally, 2:11 et seq.
  agreement on firm’s current position, 2:12 assessing firm’s current position, 2:11 attendance, identifying strategic direction, 2:13 client base, analysis of, 2:11
critical success factors, identifying strategic direction, 2:13 current position, generally, 2:11 external interviews, 2:11

Index-25
STRATEGIC PLANNING—Cont’d
Formulating a strategic plan—Cont’d financial review, assessing firm’s current position, 2:11 implementation of strategic plan, 2:14, 2:16 internal interviews, assessing firm’s current position, 2:11
performance metrics, 2:15
Identifying strategic direction, 2:13
Implementation, formulating strategic plan, 2:14, 2:16
Initial project phases, implementation, 2:14
Insight, key principles of successful strategy formulation, 2:10
Internal interviews, assessing firm’s current position, 2:11
Interviews, 2:11
Leadership, skills of effective law firm leaders, 3:10
Meetings, identifying strategic direction, 2:13
Migration efforts, achieving value convergence, 2:7
Motivation, key principles of successful strategy formulation, 2:10 Opportunities, responding to, 2:1
Performance metrics, 2:15
Phase one, formulating strategic plan, 2:11
Phase two, agreement on firm’s current position, 2:12
Phase three, identifying strategic direction, 2:13
Phase four, implementation, 2:14
Pro bono programs, 12:12
Responding to risks and opportunities, 2:1
Retreat preparation and attendance, identifying strategic direction, 2:13
Risks, responding to, 2:1
Successful formulation principles generally, 2:9 et seq.
buy-in involving key players, 2:10

STRATEGIC PLANNING—Cont’d
Successful formulation principles—Cont’d
data, 2:10 insight, achieving, 2:10
motivation, 2:10
What is the value position of the firm, 2:3
Why does value position matter, 2:4

STRATEGY
See also STRATEGIC PLANNING
Aligning business operations with strategy, 8:3
Business operations, aligning with, 8:3
Business units, practice management, 9:6
Leading the law firm, strategic thinking, 3:10
Marketing strategy process, 4:6
Partnership structure and compensation, linking development categories to firm strategy and practice requirements, 5:14
Practice management through business units, 9:6

STRUCTURE OF THE FIRM
Generally, 5:1 et seq.
Alignment or misalignment
lockstep and professional development, misalignment of, 5:10 natural lawyer development, alignment of professional development models with, 5:11
Ancillary businesses. See ANCILLARY BUSINESSES
Benefits of multi-tier and single-tier structures, 5:5
Bonuses, new model of professional development, 5:21
Breaking of lockstep mentality, 5:9
Business operations. See BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF LAW FIRMS
Comparison of equity and income partners, 5:2
STRUCTURE OF THE FIRM
—Cont’d
Compensation, leading edge models, 5:19
Corporate form. See CORPORATIONS
Cradle to grave compensation planning, 5:24
Criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Definition of professional development stages, 5:15
Developmental categories, structuring of, 5:13
Disadvantages of multi-tier and single-tier structures, 5:5
Equity partners
genearly, 5:2
criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Firm strategy and practice requirements, linking development categories to, 5:14
Income partners
genearly, 5:2
criteria for income and equity partner status, variation of, 5:3
Integration of lawyer development models and compensation, 5:17
Key operational areas, treatment of, 5:4
Later professional years, managing compensation in, 5:25
Leading edge composition models, 5:19
Linking professional development and compensation, 5:16
Lockstep
breaking of lockstep mentality,
new model of professional development, 5:9
misalignment of lockstep and professional development, 5:10
Management processes. See MANAGEMENT

SUCCESS
See also STRATEGIC PLANNING
Information technology systems, critical success factors, 13:2
Professional development, success-driven, 5:12

SUCCESsION PLANNING
Generally, 3:17

SURVEYS OF CLIENTS
Building and managing client relationships, 17:10

TAX CONSIDERATIONS
Ancillary businesses of law firm, corporate form, 10:8
TEAMWORK OBJECTIVES
Linking compensation to, 5:22

TECHNOLOGY
See INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

TELEPHONE COMMUNICATION POLICIES
Attorney-client relationship, 17:12

TERM OF OFFICE
Leading the law firm, 3:17

THREE KEY CONCEPTS
Marketing strategy, three key concepts underlying, 4:4

TRADITIONAL MODEL
Business operations and management process, alternative organizational structures, 8:5

TRAINING PROGRAMS
Generally, 7:1 et seq.
See also PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT Associates, training and professional development programs for, 7:9
Best practices, 7:8
Business unit leaders, 9:24
Curriculum design, 7:5
Diversity training, 14:7
Framework for training program, 7:4
Global aspects, 7:7
Historic approach, 7:2
Instructional and training methods, 7:6
Internal recruiting tool, training and development as, 7:3
Multi-national context, training in, 7:7
Recruiting tool, training and development as, 7:3

VALUE
Achieving value convergence, 2:7, 2:8
Convergence, value, achieving generally, 2:5 et seq.
contraction efforts, 2:8
expansion tactics, 2:6
migration efforts, 2:7
Human capital investments, valuing, 6:28
Strategic planning. See STRATEGIC PLANNING
What is value position of firm, 2:3
Why does value position matter, 2:4

VALUE-BILLING
Attorney-client relationships, 16:15

VARIABLE PAY
Professional development, 6:20

VIABILITY
Ancillary businesses of law firm, viability of proposed business, 10:7

VIRTUAL MACHINE SYSTEMS
Information technology, key issues and trends, 13:4

WAIVERS
Attorney-client relationships, disclosure letters and waivers, 16:8

WASHINGTON MINORITY BAR ASSOCIATION
Diversity recommendations, 14:5

WIDE AREA NETWORK COSTS
Information technology, key issues and trends, 13:4